Laxfiske & favoritflugor (Salmonfishing & Favouriteflies) by Pelle Klippinge

This book is all about adventures and experiences from many different rivers and countrys. From Pelles home river in Sweden, the Em, to Orkla and Gaula, to the Spey and the Dee, among others. Every chapter is connected to one of Pelles favourite flies from more than 30 years of Salmonfishing. Here you have everything from hairwings to local patterns like the Em Silver by Gustaf Ulfsparre (see drawing on back cover above) to Tilda, a fly that have produced a couple of huge Salmons - 53 and 46,5 lb in recent years. There is also a chapter about dry fly fishing from the Gaula and the Lakselv. Did you know that Salmon over 39 lb has been caught by this tecnique? It´s amzing! The last chapter, "The future for the Atlantic Salmon" is written by NASF:s chairman, Orri Vigfússon.
